

One of the better bits of legislation has been the do not call list. Please do not revoke this or make it possible for us to be bothered with calls we do not wish to receive. I find it difficult to understand how the people who are supposed to represent the public would take away this bit of privacy.